

Special Edition Webinar - What's happening in the NZ Economy, is it good or bad?

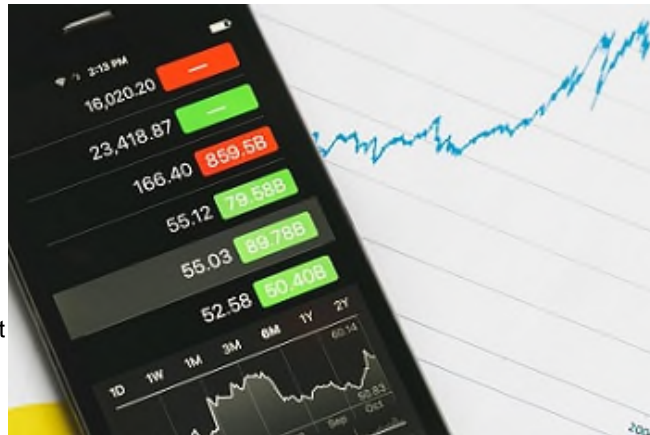

When: Thursday, 19 September 2019, 4:00 - 5:00pm
Registrations Close: Thursday, 19 September, 3:00pm

What is the impact of the Official Cash Rate?

Tony Alexander is the Chief Economist of the BNZ -

Following the success of his February presentation on the NZ Housing Market, we have asked Tony back to talk about what is happening in the NZ economy, is it good or bad?

This is a fantastic opportunity to hear one of New Zealand's leading economists talk about what is really happening in the economy and how it will affect your clients. (Why not invite your clients in to listen with you over a coffee?)

Tony, will cover a variety of areas including:

- The Official Cash Rate
- Trade and commodity prices
- External influences (China, Brexit & Trump)
- Business confidence
- And more . . .

Your Presenter

Tony Alexander

Tony Alexander graduated from Canterbury University in 1984 with a Master of Arts (Economics) degree with first class honours; after briefly working in Sydney, then with Westpac in Wellington from 1987, joined the BNZ in 1993 and was appointed Chief Economist in 1994. He spends considerable time researching and writing about the New Zealand economy with special attention to SMEs, housing, and the role of Auckland in the New Zealand economy. He speaks at numerous functions around the country advising businesses on what the future is likely to hold.
